

PKR

PKR 2.0 Polygon

2024
WHITEPAPER

Executive Summary

PKR is a deflationary token that has multiple tokenomic features which make it unique amongst gaming tokens. As well as being deflationary PKR is the Governance token for gaming studio Polker. Governance will be live during 2024. Other use cases will be explained in the documentation below.

In 2023 PKR was successfully relaunched on Polygon as an ERC-20 standard token. A snapshot of all holders of old PKR on July 24, 2023 23:59 EDT was taken - all holders are able to claim the new token on Polygon at claim.pkr.io.

The new token is live and trading on DEX (SushiSwap) and also available on CEX (MEXC and Bitmart).

*PKR was originally launched in June 2021 on Ethereum (ERC-20) and BNB Smart Chain (BEP-20). Due to a hack on Poly Network Bridge in 2023 the token was deprecated on both Ethereum and BNB Smart Chain.

PKR & Polker

Polker is a gaming studio which utilizes PKR for various aspects of their project. Although PKR is not owned by Polker, it is the utility and governance token the company has integrated into the project. The utility that Polker adds to PKR is invaluable - the symbiosis is explained here:

Buy-Back & Burn

Polker will buy back PKR from the market with 20% of their profits. Half of the buy back will be burned, and half of the buy back will be redistributed to the community in rewards via mechanisms such as staking or mini games.

Since PKR is a non-inflationary token, any burned tokens will lead to deflation of the supply - this perpetual deflationary mechanism is important for the tokenomic structure of PKR.

Purchases

Polker will enable all in game items to be purchased with PKR. Spades and PKR-Passes are available.

Governance

PKR will be the governance token of Polker. This will allow the community to have full impact on the decisions made and the direction Polker takes. Governance will be live during 2024

Rewards

Polker offers various reward mechanisms for PKR. Staking PKR to earn PKR, Staking PKR-USDC LP and Mini Games which reward PKR are all either available now or will be available from Polker in the future.

PKR & Patented Technologies

T.R.N.G

Polker has a patented True Random Number Generator that uses on-chain activity to ensure true randomness and verifiable results. This technology can be used in a huge variety of applications from gaming to two-factor authentication and more.

Multi-Crypto Marketplace

PKR's patented Multi-Crypto Marketplace is an on-chain protocol that allows multiple cryptocurrencies to be used simultaneously and securely for a multitude of applications. This protocol can be used for anything from cryptocurrency gaming to online marketplaces.

Provably Fair Gameplay

The Provably Fair Gameplay patent is a protocol that uses on-chain activity to demonstrate that gameplay was random and that actions of platforms are not cheating the player. The unique protocol can be implemented in blockchain based games as well as non blockchain based gaming platforms who wish to have a secure way to demonstrate fairness.
